

Master's in Economics

Economic Policy

Program length

2 years

ECTS

120

Pre-requisites

English Language

Program description

The master program on “Economic Policy” under the Economics department of Alatau International University was founded by one of the leading economists in Post-Soviet area and Central Asia Prof. Dr. Dzharkynai Musaeva. The program aims to prepare an economic policy makers, researchers and leaders for Central Asian countries. By the end of the program students will be able to analyze economic and financial problems, to do deep research and recommend solutions for the economic problems.

Compulsory & elective modules (courses)

Semester 1

Advanced Microeconomics

Advanced Macroeconomics

Applied Econometrics

Pedagogy

Theory of transition economies

International Economic Policy

Semester 2

Financial Markets and Institutions

Economy of regulation

Economic growth

Economics of innovation

History and methodology of economics

Professional foreign language

Semester 3

Project management

Information systems in economics

Contemporary problems in economics

Research methods and modeling

Semester 4

Economics of public sector

Budget policy

Forecasting of national economy

Seminar for thesis writing

Thesis work

Employability

Graduates from this program can work in any international development institutions in Kyrgyz republic or abroad like UNDP, GIZ, JICA, WB, IMF, EBRR and in different development projects. Also they can be employed to public administrations like Ministry of Economy, Finance and so forth. Students who are interested to do research and academic career, can continue their education in PhD programs in Kyrgyzstan or abroad.

Student Profile

Age average: 23

Males: 40%

Females: 60%

International students: 0%

Languages of instruction: English.

Program Coordinator

Kiyalbek Akmoldoev (PhD)

E-mail adresi

kiyalbek.akmoldoev@alato.edu.kg