

SCIENTIFIC WEBINAR ON EMERGING VIRAL INFECTIONS: SCIENCE OF COVID-19 PANDEMIC

The situation that we are facing with the COVID-19 pandemic is unprecedented. Given the speed at which the spread of COVID-19 is developing and the urgent need for information in this area, we are planning to have interview/webinars with an expert in the field. It will be hosted on the Ala-too International University platform. The AIU is collaborating and launching a scientific webinar to accelerate the Knowledge of novel diagnostics, therapeutics and vaccines among the medical aspirants and health care professionals.

The benefit of setting this webinar in the form of a research topic page is that the relevant medical communities can then interact and comment on the theme. People would be able to submit abstracts, commentaries, presentations etc. around the theme of the webinar/collection.

We kindly ask our members with the expertise, students to get involved in the project – submit your abstracts for webinars.

Discussion topics:

- Introduction to emerging respiratory viruses, including novel coronavirus
- The Global scientific response to COVID -19 Pandemic:
- COVID -19 Vaccines update
- Infection prevention and control for novel coronavirus
- COVID-19 and chronic Lung Disease
- Mechanism of action of drugs under trial for COVID-19
